He says all Brownsville men talk rice, that half of them ask a Corpus visitor "How's cabbage?" and the other half want to know "How's The Crony?"—Corpus Crony.

What Rio Grande Soil Can Do.

The Advance, in its write-up of Hidalgo county last Sunday, had the following:

The San Juan Plantation is about 7 miles below town, and the main road to Brownsville passes through it. If anyone entertains any doubt about the possibilities of this soil when well irrigated and cultivated a visit to this place will dispel it. A few years ago Mr. John Closner our present Sheriff and tax collector, conceived the idea that farming here to be successful must be done with the aid of irrigation, and in a small way at first, cleared up a few acres of land close to the river, and put in a small pumping plant. The first year he only planted corn and some vegetables, with the result that his corn yielded 80 bushels to the acre, and other things in proportion. The next year he tried sugar cane and has been increasing his acreage in that product ever since, till now he has over 150 acres of as fine cane as can be found anywhere, and has a sugar mill which turns out as good an article as any that is ever brought to this market and he finds ready sale for his product.

HOW TO BE A GENTLEMAN.

Center Champion.

Let no boy think he can be made a gentleman by the clothes he wears, the horse he rides, the stick he carries, the dog which trots after him, the house he lives in, or the money he spends. Not one, nor all, of these things do it; and yet every boy may be a gentleman. He may wear an old hat, cheap clothes, live in a poor house, and spend but little money. But how? By being true, manly and honorable. By keeping himself neat and respectable. By being civil and courteous. By respecting himself and others. By doing the best he knows how; and finally above all, by fearing God and keeping his commandments.

MISS IDA M. SNYDER,

Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club.

MENSTRUAL irregularities are generally the beginning of a woman's troubles. With the vitality at a low ebb, the blood weakened, the digestion disordered, she goes about pale-faced, hollow-eyed and bag-gard, a piteous contrast to the blooming health of her former self. But over 1,000,000 women have found health again by taking Wine of Cardui. As a regulator of the menstrual periods Wine of Cardui has never been known to fail. It has seldom failed to restore perfect health, even in the most persistent and aggravated case of weakness.

Miss Ida M. Snyder, of No. 535 Bergen Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., has used Wine of Cardui and she says it helped her into a new life. Health to Miss Snyder is worth a great deal. She is an attractive young woman with intellectual attainments and she occupies the position of Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club. This position marks her as a person of intellect, culture and refinement and it speaks highly of the respect and trust her fellow women have in her. She writes:

"If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would use more intelligence in the matter of medicines, observing results, they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for.

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McElree's Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

You may secure the same relief as Miss Snyder, if you take Wine of Cardui as she took it. Thedford's Black-Draught is the companion medicine of Wine of Cardui and it is a liver and bowel regulator which assists greatly in effecting a cure. If you take these medicines according to directions, the relief and cure is simple. Some cases are cured quickly and others take longer because the disease has run longer. Remember how Miss Snyder took Wine of Cardui and has health. The same medicines are offered you to-day.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.
